The number of rotary hoe equipped farm tractors in Texas jumped from 7,000 in 1949 to 26,000 in 1952. Savings up to 60 percent are being made by cotton producers in their chopping and hoeing bills by using this hoe.

3/4 bale more cotton per acre
with dieldrin

Here's how Mr. Reeves explains it

"I farmed 563 acres of cotton during the 1952 season. Boll weevil was at its worst in the history of the Rio Grande Valley. Dieldrin controlled not only early season boll weevil but also migratory weevil. I made 1 1/2 bales per acre and I credit 3/4 bale per acre to the results I received from dieldrin. I plan to use dieldrin during the 1953 season on all my cotton."

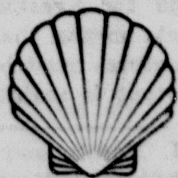

Dieldrin is the only officially recommended organic control for boll weevil in the lower Rio Grande Valley after weevil migration. That's because dieldrin lasts many days... keeps on killing in hot, dry, windy weather.

For bollworm use a dieldrin-DDT mix. Dieldrin-DDT gives better bollworm control than any single cotton poison commercially available.

Order dieldrin or dieldrin-DDT from your insecticide dealer. Why not call him today?

THE LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER FAVORS PRESIDENT EISENHOWER'S PRACTICE OF NOT TELLING HIS GOLF SCORE

Editor's note: The Little River Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm at Marlow is talking about something he doesn't know anything about this week, again.

Dear editor:

I was out here on my farm yesterday thinkin about whether I ought to take up golf, just in case I ran into President Eisenhower, and I got to thinkin about the practice he has established of not tellin his score, and I want you to know I approve of it.

People talk too much. They ask too many questions. Somebody is always askin me if I'm through plowin yet, and as far as I'm concerned it's a personal question, like how much money you got in the bank, and from now on me and Eisenhower are gonna follow the same pattern, with him not tellin his golf score and me not tellin the status of my plowin.

Another question I don't go far is, how much cotton you got planted this year? I got the same amount of cotton I planted in 1939, and it's still in the ground as far as I know as it hasn't come up yet. People seem to forget that farmin and golfin are pretty much the same, you do both for the exercise, and if you don't feel like either one today you can put it off till tomorrow and that's your business, at least that's the way I look at farmin and I suppose it's the way Eisenhower looks in golfin. I don't think he looks at the Presidency that way, but that's the advantage of livin out here over havin to live in the White House.

Out here, about all the problems I got are domestic problems, but every mornin when Eisenhower wakes up he's got not only domestic problems but foreign problems, national problems, Republican problems, Democratic problems, tax problems, budget problems, deficit problems, speech-makin problems, Joe McCarthy problems, I tell you, plowin has politics beat all to pieces as recreation.

But even if I don't play golf myself, I'd like to suggest that more political leaders in Texas ought to brush up on the game. Nobody knows when one of em is gonna have to go up to Washington to ask for some form of aid or another and it's possible a little golf-playin ability might be just the thing. Ain't anybody countin on needin any help, I don't suppose, but there sure ain't no harm in brushin up on the game, just in case.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

June 15 Is Deadline For Entering Cotton Growing Contest

Cotton producers desiring to enter the county-wide cotton contest sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce are reminded that the closing date on entries is June 15, 1953.

P. W. Davis, chairman of the contest, said that entries are now coming into the Chamber of Commerce office. The committee has worked out final details for judging the contest with $100 and a certificate of merit as first premium and $50 and a certificate of merit for the second place.

Contest rules and entry blanks may be secured from the following firms in Cameron: Cameron Compress, County Agent, F.H.A. office, Milam County Farm Bureau, Cameron Implement Company, Burkes-Howard Tractor and Implement Company and the Chamber of Commerce.

Among the patients admitted May 20 to St. Edward Hospital were Lena Riddle of Cameron, Mrs. J. L. Edwards of Cameron, Miss Agnes Rinn of Buckholts, Miss Betty Allison of Buckholts, Mrs. Margie Wells of Rockdale, and J. G. Plant of Cameron. They are receiving medical treatment. Mrs. J. A. Blasienz of Clarkson visited here last week.

Herbert Jansing of Temple entered St. Edward Hospital on May 21 for medical treatment.

COTTON INSECT SITUATION

Heavy rains in Central and South Central Texas caused damage to cotton and other crops. Considerable cotton acreage in some localities will have to be replanted. Additional rainfall further delayed planting of the crop in the northern areas. Beneficial rains fell in the upper coastal and in the northern part of the coastal bend areas. Although rains in the southern part of the coastal bend and the lower Rio Grande Valley were not general, they afforded temporary relief from existing drouth conditions.

Damaging thrips infestations continue to occur in the upper coastal area. Sixty-seven per cent of the untreated fields inspected in this area are in need of control measures for this insect. These inspections indicated that injurious infestations are occurring in certain fields in Austin, DeWitt, Bee, Lee, Houston, Williamson, Limestone, Falls and McLennan counties.

Most cotton fields in the coastal bend and southwest areas are in or are approaching the blooming stage and farmers in these areas are urged to inspect their fields at least at weekly intervals and to apply insecticides for the control of cotton flea-hoppers, boll weevils, pink bollworms or other insects only if infestations justify them. These inspections and necessary treatments should be made in fields in which early-season applications of insecticides were used as well as in those that have received no treatment. Farmers in the upper coastal and the southern part of the South Central area are urged to continue their early-season applications during the last two weeks of May using dosages sufficiently high to kill boll weevil. See the Guide for correct dosages to use. Early season applications should be starting in the upper portion of the south central area and in the central area during this week.

No less than three tons of silage should be put up for each cow in the dairy herd. Doubling this amount will take care of the lean and unproductive years and now is the time to get the storage ready.

Mrs. Dan Robinson of Milano visited in Cameron Thursday.

Mrs. S. S. Hickman of Jones Prairie was a visitor in Cameron last week.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

By Herman Yezak

May 18-22. By the time this column is published and read the 53rd Legislature will be closed. The regular 120-day session was extended 15 days from May 12 to May 27. The pay for legislators is $10 a day for the first 120 days and thereafter the pay is $5 per day while in session and there is no pay between sessions.

The corporation code measure was side-tracked by the House after a cumulative debate extended on the bill at intervals for over a week's period.

Control over sale of narcotics was tightened, particular to minors, and a narcotic division was reinstated under Department of Public Safety by the provisions of two bills that passed this session.

The Board of control would be re-vamped according to a Senate Bill that passed. An executive for the Board would replace the full time three member board as now constituted.

A bill allowing A&M College to deed the Bluebonnet Farms near McGregor to the Federal Government was passed.

A measure to raise the salaries of constitutional state officers was left pending over the weekend and its chances for passage were diminished. People would have a chance to approve or disapprove the amendment at an election.

Several Senators filibustered during the last days of the session which prevented the Senate passing several controversial measures that were on the calendar awaiting consideration and passage.

A forty week day for state employees was in the final stages of consideration and it is likely that such a set-up will become law.

A tie clasp was presented recently to 14 legislators, including the Governor, for 10 or more years of service in the Legislature. The presentation was made in the Governor's office by Rep. Johnson from Austin.

The customary picture panel for each legislature with house members, the Speaker and the Governor, House officers and mascots was completed by a photographic studio and hung on the wall in the House Chamber this week. There are 91 children of House members designated as mascots.

A bill creating a central distribution agency in the Public Welfare Department for handling surplus food for school lunch rooms was sent to a conference committee for adjustments. The bill has a chance of passage before adjournment of the legislature on May 27.

An emergency bill by Senator Seccrest of Temple that would authorize the state to handle emergency Federal funds for the Waco and San Angelo disaster areas was quickly and finally passed.

Market on Fat Cows Is Steady Saturday

400 head of cattle were sold at the Saturday sales of the Milam County Livestock Commission Company.

According to Finley Blackwell, manager, the market on fat cattle, was about steady with sales last week. Good stocker cattle, cows and calves brought better prices than a week before, he stated.

Choice calves and yearlings sold for $20 to $24.50. Medium to good calves brought $14 to $22.

$12 to $13.80 was the price range on fat cows, while canner and cutter cows brought $8.50

NOTE BY ROY WRIGHT COUNTY SUPERVISOR

POULTRY is a good source of ing, good management, constant culling, and above all, good food income for many farmers. The month of May presents many troubles to the poultryman. Cool nights and windy days make it hard to control the ventilation of laying and brooder houses unless proper ventilation was provided when the house was built. We should keep our houses properly ventilated as the weather changes. We should start gathering our eggs regularly and cool them before placing in the case. If you are not selling hatching eggs, then any roosters should be removed from the flock and produce only fertile eggs. CULLING should be done now and continued at least on a monthly basis. Hens laying eggs less than 100 eggs per year are better off in the roaster. They can't possibly pay for their keep. When they pass the 150 egg level, a hen is three times as profitable as one that lays 167 eggs. To do this is not hard to do if we follow good breed and plenty of it.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE—Realizing the serious problem confronting our dairy industry from the marketing standpoint, it has been brought out that Oleo spent 14 million dollars in advertising their product in 1952; that the dairy industry was spending $1 for advertising where the competing products were spending $85 and that the dairymen were spending seven cents per 100 pounds of butter for advertising where Coca-Cola spent one per cent per bottle. Think it over, Mr. Dairyman.

Toby, Bill Lierman To Get Lamar Degrees

Lamar State College of technology, formerly Lamar Junior College, granted its first degrees Tuesday night.

Among the 79 students to graduate were two Rosebud brothers, Roy John (Toby) and Bill Lierman. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Lierman of Route 4, Rosebud.

to $11.50 Low grade cows sold for $6 to $8.50.

Prices on bulls ranged from $10.50 to $16.

Gen-Tex Farmers Invited to Silage Hay, Pasture Day

All Central Texas farmers are cordially invited to attend the Silage-Hay-Pasture Field Day sponsored on May 29 by the Austin Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with Texas A&M Extension Service.

The David Gault Dairy Farm, located on the Manor Road between Manor and Austin, will be the site of the program which is scheduled to begin at 10:30 a. m.

Cutting feeding costs will be the theme of the day. The following discussions will be held during the morning: "Making and Using Silage" will be the subject of Dairyman R. T. Burleson; E. M. Trew will speak on "Better Pastures for Central Texas"; and W. B. Coke's talk on "Producing Quality Hay" will be followed by a question and answer panel.

Arrangements have been made with a commercial catering service for a barbecue luncheon to be served at noon.

After lunch the following operations will be demonstrated: Harvesting, storing and curing of hay; weed and small brush mowing in pastures; and the application of anhydrous ammonia.

Equipment on display will include: stalk shredders, agricultural sprayers, manure spreaders, ensilage harvesters, anhydrous ammonia rigs, side delivery rakes, and hay loaders. Displays will be furnished by several Austin firms.

Revised Form in Use To Prove Citizenship Or Age by Census

A revised application form for use of persons seeking to establish proof of age of citizenship through personal Census records is now available at the Census Bureau's district office in Fort Worth, Texas according to District Supervisor James M. Hamilton, Room 2134, 300 W. Vickery St.

The revised form is designed to encourage applicants to use the Censuses of 1880, 1900 and 1920, if possible, when requesting searches of the voluminous census records. Officials point out that information from these Censuses can be furnished more rapidly because the records for these years have been card indexed. Because of the comprehensive index, information can be provided in most instances if the applicant furnishes only his name, the name of the city or county and State in which he was living and the name of the head of the household in which he was residing. Searches of the card index of these censuses can be conducted five times faster than by the conventional method of looking through the original records.

Persons needing information from the Census of 1910, 1930, 1940 and 1950—if residing in a city at the time these censuses were taken—should furnish the house number, name of the street, city, county and State, and the name of the parents or head of the household with whom living. If residing in a small town, they should give all available information as to cross-streets, road names, name of township in which residence was located and any other available pertinent data. Rural residents are asked to furnish the rural route number and also the distance and direction of the residence from the nearest town.

WILLIAM COOPER BRANN KEPT TEXAS IN AN UPROAR

William Cooper Brann came to Texas in 1886, and he soon had the state in a turmoil that lasted until a bullet put an end to his life.

He was a journalist, originally from Illinois. He was fearless to a fault and had a burning hatred for anything he thought was a fake, put on, or sham. He called himself a defiler of false gods, a puncturer of stuffed shirts, and an exposé of hypocrites. He was the iconoclast supreme.

Brann attacked the Supreme Court for selling out to capitalism, he lambasted John Bull, gleefully mocked the doings of the "Four Hundred" and wrote boldly of sex at a time when many people believed the Diety made a serious mistake when He created His children with sexual passions. His prize target were the Baptists. And therein was his final undoing.

After serving on the editorial staffs of several Texas newspapers he moved to Waco in 1894, where he edited the Morning News, until he could devote his full time to the Iconoclast, a monthly publication through which he proposed to combat hypocrisy, intolerance, fraud and miscellaneous corruption.

The camping of this most vitriolic of Baptist baiters in the heart of the Baptist bailiwick foretold tragedy from the start.

Brann knew the value of sensationalism and scandal in journalism, and he used them to help promote his thmes. He exploited possibly the most sensitive field of human prejudice—denominational religion. Actually, he was too intelligent and too well informed a historian to have overlooked the fact that nothing has ever promoted a religion like persecution. Therefore, it seems, that he, to some extent, took a sadistic joy, or sportsman's love in a fight.

In the spring of 1896 a scandal broke out in the very sanctum of the Baptist denomination. A thirteen-year-old Brazilian girl had been received in the home of the Baylor president. The girl accused the brother of a prominent Baptist preacher of being the cause of her predicament. This was just the kind of a mess that even a poor journalist could have kept going with only slight stirring. The Iconoclast now building circulation up toward the 100,000 mark, aired the affair far and wide.

Brann called Baylor University a "manufactory of ministers and magdalenes." His enemies did not blush with shame; they blushed with rage. A group of Baylor men dragged the Iconoclast editor across the campus with a rope around his neck and made him sign a retraction. A few days later three men caught him and gave him a severe public beating. Two men died in a shooting scrape over the issue a few weeks later.

Friends, as well as enemies, warned Brann that he was sure to get himself killed. But no pressure could prevail upon him to let up. It was a surprise to no one when it happened on the afternoon of April 1, 1898.

Brann Davis who was standing in front of his real estate office in Waco. It is claimed that Brann cursed Davis as he passed. Anyway, according to an account in the Waco Tribune-Herald, before Brann "had gone more than four or five steps past, Davis shot Brann in the back 'right where his suspenders crossed'." Brann whirled, drawing a .41. He put six bullets into Davis.

To this day, an unbiased opinion of William Cooper Brann is difficult to find. To his admirers he was one of the most penetrating thinkers and literary stylists of his day, the first great debunker. To his enemies he was a vile scoundrel who used his pen to defile all things sacred.

Games of softball were played Tuesday night between boys in the 11-12 and 13-14 year-old groups. Both games were well played and well attended.

Friday night games will be played between the boys in the 8-10 year-old group and teams 1 and 3 of the 13-14 year-old group. The first games will be between the 8-10 year-old boys.

Interest in these games is increasing and it is hoped that managers for each team can be assigned next week.

Men who have played baseball and can give these boys the proper coaching and training are badly needed to help out during the summer months. It is urged that all who are willing to manage a team or help in any way come out Tuesday or Friday nights and pitch in. The boys will do their level best if they know their fathers and brothers are sitting on the sideline.

It is hoped that some public minded citizen or organization will be touched by the program in progress for these youths and provide a lighted field where regulation Little League Baseball can be played. Smaller towns than Cameron in this vicinity have set up fields complete with lights, bleachers, press box, etc. and are greatly satisfied with the results.

This is a community project for all local boys. Any who have not registered and been assigned to a team are urged to come out and do so at once. All players will be assigned to a team as soon as school is out.

Sixteen, seventeen, and eighteen year old boys from high school, coaches or any others who are willing to coach or manage a team are invited to avail themselves of the opportunity to participate. Contact Joe O'Neil or Allen Dodson or come out to the City Park on Friday night.

C. of C. Adds 11 New Members

The Membership Committee of the Chamber of Commerce has added eleven new members to the chamber. Bill Burns, chairman of the committee, said this week.

Mr. Burns said that the committee will continue the drive to obtain new members until all prospective members have been contacted. This committee is attempting to increase the chamber's budget so that it will be sufficient to include all activities of the organization and eliminate drives for funds that have necessitated solicitation in the past. If the budget is reached, such projects as the Christmas program, cotton contest, and livestock show will not necessitate special collection.

Members of the committee are working in teams and include Bill Burns, Calvin Markham, Albert Collins, Bill McIntosh, Dr. Evans, Jr., and Jack DuBois.

Business firms and individuals that have recently been added to the membership of the Chamber are Milam County Livestock Commission Company, Cameron Welcome Service, Gordon S. Improper Handling Of Food Is Cause Of Food Poisoning

The coming of warm weather brings a warning from Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, for all persons to be on the alert regarding food poisoning. Most cases investigated by the State Department of Health disclosed that improper food handling was responsible for the illness.

Food poisoning is commonly caused by bacteria in food. In general there are two types food poisoning and food infection. Food poisoning is caused by bacteria in the food that produce a poison and usually the symptoms appear within a few hours. In food infection, the bacteria do not produce a poison, but attack the body. This takes longer so symptoms usually do not appear for 12 to 24 hours after eating.

In both kinds of illness the symptoms may be similar: nausea, vomiting, diarrhea, abdominal pain and fever may all occur. In food poisoning nausea and vomiting may predominate while in food infection diarrhea may be the prominent symptom.

Donations Added To Relief Fund

Donations are yet being made for the Waco Disaster Relief Fund. Those received by the Herald office since publication of the last list are:

Mrs. Tillie E. Richards, $1; Mr. and Mrs. Otto Meyer, $2; Mrs. Maud Crittenden, $1; the Yoe Chapter of the FHA, $25; Dave Hemenas, $2; Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. R. K. McFarland, $2; Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. H. M. Akers, $25; J. E. Johnson, $5.

These additions bring the total donations to $1295.35.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Allen of Houston spent the past weekend in Cameron with friends.

As a prevention Dr. Cox suggests that all food be protected against flies and other pests. Refrigerate all perishable foods including meats, poultry and cream-filled pastries. Many outbreaks of food infection are caused by leaving food out of the refrigerator. Also, avoid handling food if you have a sore or an infection on your hands or if you are sick.

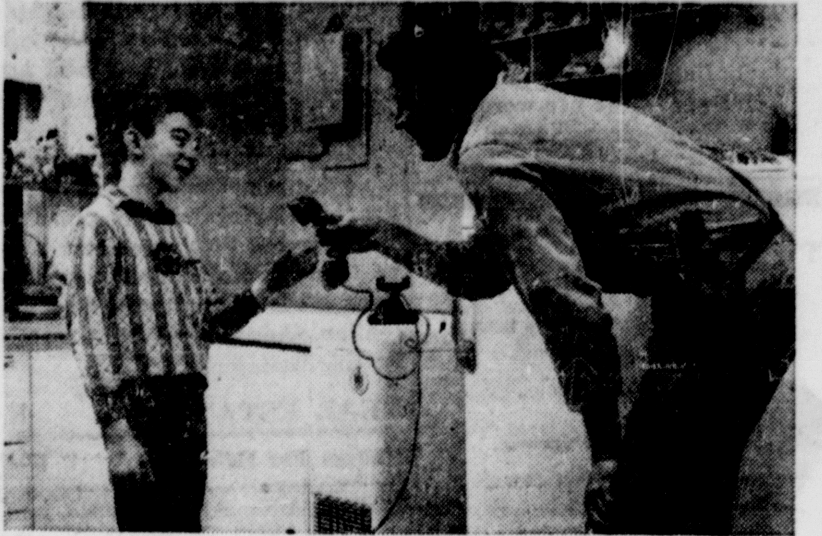

After June 1 Coach Seat Reservations Will Be Required

With the prospects of increased summer travel and to insure the comfort of passengers, the Santa Fe Railway will require reservations for all chair car seats on its Texas trains having connections with the Grand Canyon trains operating between Chicago and California, W. J. Rodgers, passenger traffic manager, announced today. The reserved seat plan will become effective June 1, and there will be no extra charge, Rodgers said.

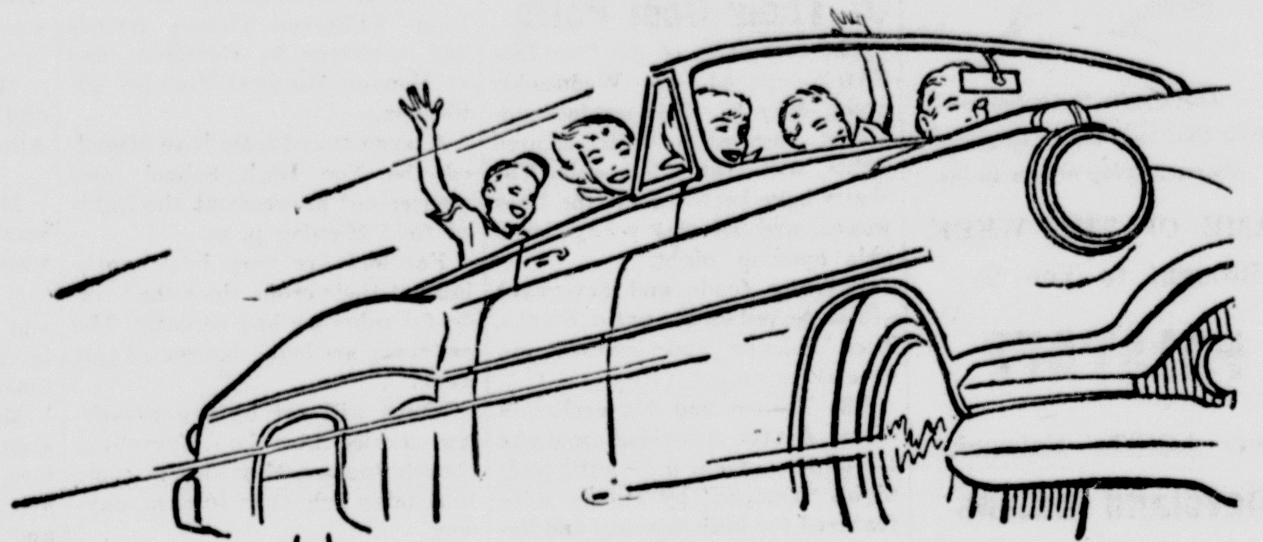

Reservations for coach seats under this plan will be required on trains 65 and 66 operating to and from the Houston terminal; trains 77 and 78 and 111 and 112 operating through the Fort Worth-Dallas area and trains 75 and 76 operating beyond Temple.

Seat reservations will also be required on the Grand Canyon between Chicago and Los Angeles. The plan was adopted to assure the coach traveler of a comfortable seat and to avoid the possibility of overcrowding, according to Rodgers.

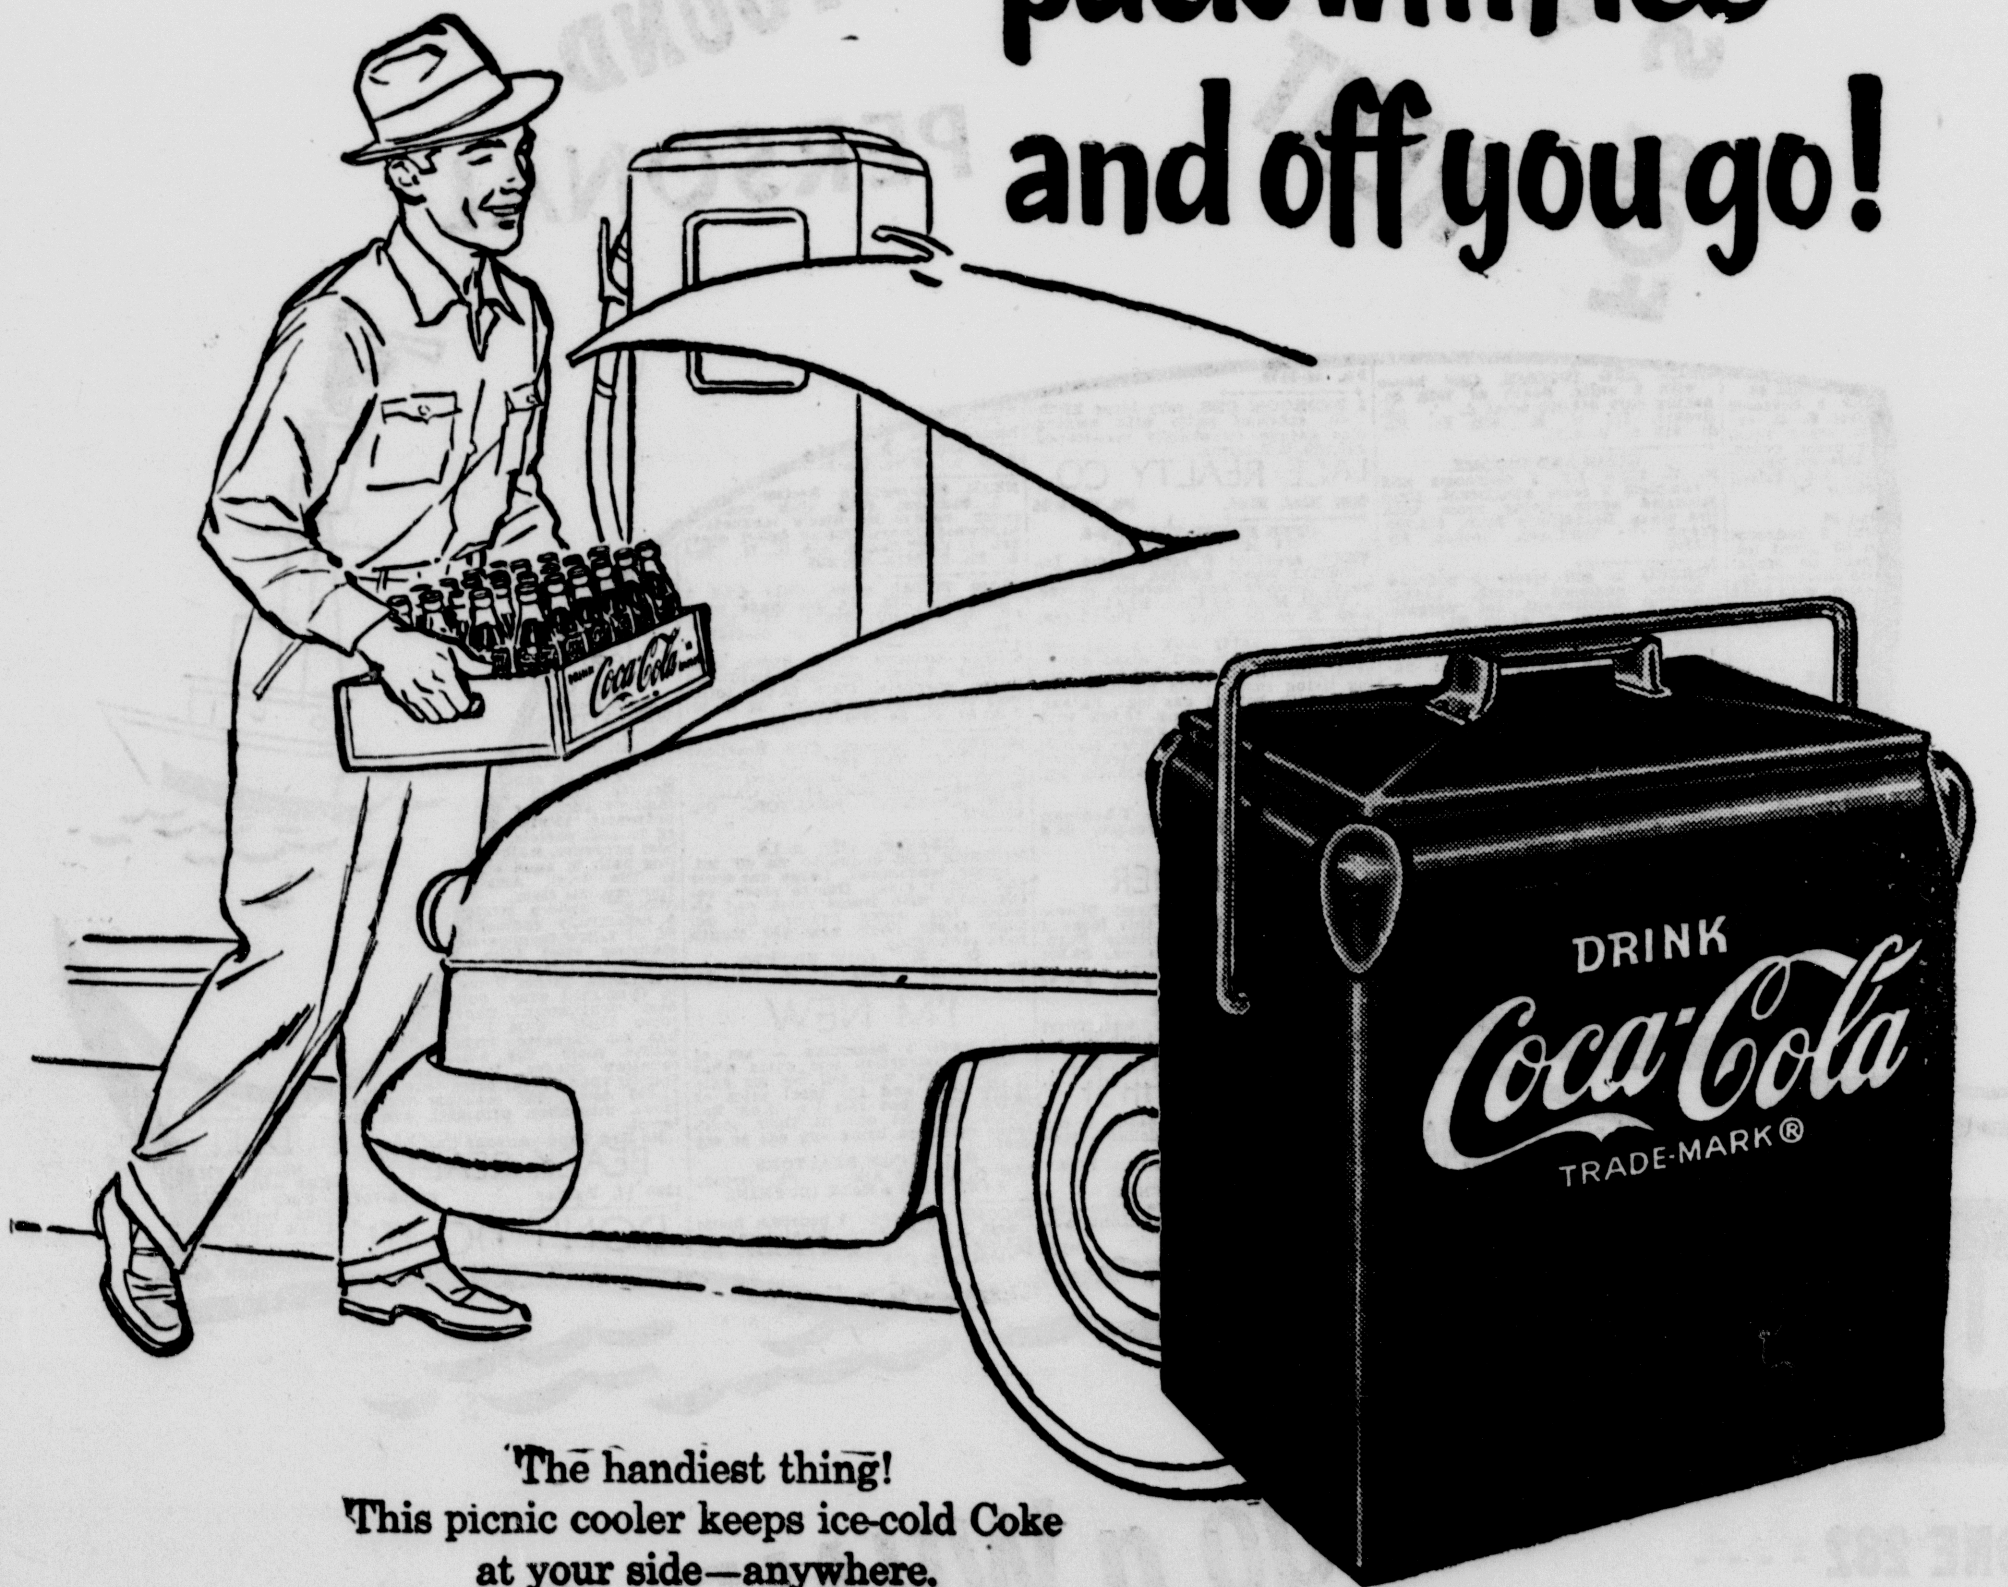

7 Years—6 Times More Rural Telephones

THIS SCENE HAS BEEN REPEATED many times in recent years, as telephone people worked to extend service to the state's farming areas. In just seven years, the number of Southwestern Bell rural telephones in Texas has increased six times. And we're continuing to push more lines out into rural areas every month. In 1953 we hope to be able to spend more than $4½ million on this type of construction alone. SOUTHWESTERN BELL... A TEAM OF 28,000 TEXANS... PARTNERS IN TEXAS' PROGRESS.

$750,000 Budgeted
In House Bill For
Belton Reservoir

$750,000 for the Belton dam and reservoir was included in the flood control request passed Saturday by the House appropriations committee. The bill requested $389,884,100 for rivers, harbors, and flood control over the nation.

In preparing his budget former President Truman has asked $1,100,000 for the Bell county project. When President Eisenhower revised the budget, he cut the figure to $700,000, but the appropriations committee restored $50,000 in their Saturday action.

The $750,000 figure is not final, however. The House is scheduled to consider the committee's action Tuesday on the floor. A final vote is expected Wednesday or Thursday. It is possible that House members may leave it to the Senate to restore cuts.

In most past flood control bills the House has made sharp cuts only to have them increased by the Senate. This has been followed by a compromise between the two chambers. Each year the latter body has restored the House cut on the Belton project.

The committee appropriated 17 per cent less than the overall total asked by President Eisenhower. The fact that the Belton project was raised rather than cut signifies the importance and military necessity for completion of the dam and reservoir.

Mrs. D. R. Brantly entered St. Edward Hospital on May 16 for medical treatment.

This is a recent view of St. Luke's Episcopal-sponsored hospital in the Texas Medical Center at Houston which is to offer specialized care to Texans in every part of the state. A total of $3,000,000 has already been spent in building the hospital, but it is now necessary to increase it from 180 to 341 beds as part of the overall plan for the Texas Medical Center.

A public subscription campaign will be carried on throughout the diocese of Texas, from June 10-21, in order to raise the additional $2,000,000 needed to complete St. Luke's Hospital, equip it, and operate it for the first year.

Additional Help Is Given Tornado Areas

Washington, May 22.—President Eisenhower granted an additional $115,000 in federal funds Friday for the relief of Waco and other Texas areas ravaged by tornadoes.

The President allocated $250,000 for Waco last Friday. Friday he telegraphed Gov. Allan Shivers at Austin that the Texas disaster area has been expanded to include McLennan county and Tom Green counties.

Waco is in McLennan and San Angelo in Tom Green.

Shivers had asked $2.4 million. White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said the administration will "wait and see" if federal funds in addition to the $365,000 now allocated are needed.

Malathion Will Kill DDT Resistant Flies

Flies that have become resistant to DDT and other well-known insecticides can be killed economically by a new insecticide, malathion. This was announced today by the American Cyanamid Company following recent acceptance by the U. S. Department of Agriculture of data supporting the use of malathion for fly control.

Experiments now in progress indicate less likelihood of flies becoming resistant to malathion, even after prolonged use.

This data was established by extensive studies conducted by State and University experiment stations. Described by the Department of Agriculture as "one of the safest insecticides to handle," malathion in a new, broad-spectrum insecticide introduced earlier this season as a killer of a wide range of farm and garden pests, including aphids, mites, scales, and numerous others.

Malathion may be used for the reduction of flies around buildings which house domestic animals, around yards, and around houses. However, Cyanamid's agricultural experts advise against the use of malathion where milk is processed and stored, directly on animals, or in dairy barns, or where feed and food products may become contaminated.

To attract flies, malathion may be mixed with molasses, corn syrup or sugar. Indications are that this may prolong malathion's effectiveness.

Introduction earlier this season of malathion as a broad spectrum insecticide armed home gardeners for the first time with a single killer of a wide range of garden pests—safe enough for home use when used according to directions. It controls common pests which attack such popular food crops as beans, potatoes, tomatoes, broccoli, and cabbage, pears and apples, and such ornamentals as roses, chrysanthemums, gladioli, azaleas, rhododendron, spruce, juniper, arbor vitae, spiraea, euonymus, and ivy.

Mrs. Bess Triggs, teacher of the Young Adults Sunday School class at the Methodist Church, was honored by her class with a surprise birthday party Thursday night.

While Mrs. Triggs was at a neighbor's house, the class members decorated a birthday table in her house, lighted candles, and awaited her return in the dark. When Mrs. Triggs came into her house, she was surprised by the singing of "Happy Birthday."

The table, laid with a white cloth, held branched silver candelabra, silver urns filled with daisies and Queen Anne's lace, an assortment of covered dishes brought by the class, and iced tea.

A hand-painted ceramic basket and a lovely birthday card, the latter made by Mrs. Jesse Holloway, were presented to Mrs. Triggs in honor of the occasion.

A short business meeting followed the supper. Officers for the coming year who were elected are: Jim Miller, president; Milton Brown, vice-president; treasurer, Mrs. Milton Brown; and sunshine chairman, Mrs. Gene Blake.

Guests for the evening were Dr. and Mrs. Mark Mafers, and Miss Myrtle Avriel.

Class members attending included Mr. and Mrs. Dana Kestbaum, Dr. and Mrs. Gus Evans, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Dana Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Thelbert Crittenden, Mr. and Mrs. Don Humble, Dr. and Mrs. Jack Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Holloway, Dr. and Mrs. George Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Blake, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack DuBois.

Christian Church Honors Graduates At Fellowship Meal

The First Christian Church honored graduates from the church at its monthly fellowship dinner on Friday, May 15. The graduation theme was carried out in decorations of caps and gowns. Place cards were on the tables for all the graduates.

On the program Shirley Smith read part of the 1953 class history. The eighth grade graduates were recognized, and the three Yoe High graduates, Shirley Smith, Shirley Scarborough, and Billie June Williams, received gifts.

Mrs. Grace Reed and Mrs. Dow Eplen were in charge of the decorations.

Seniors Spend Day At Belton Swimming And Playing Golf

The Yoe High Senior Class enjoyed a day of fun in Belton on Wednesday. The group of about 50 left Cameron at 8:30 a. m., arriving in Belton around 10:00.

Riverside Swimming Pool was headquarters for the day's activities, so the seniors were in and out of the water all morning. At noon picnic lunches brought by each of the group were eaten by the river. Following lunch they played several rounds of miniature golf before going for a final swim.

Sunburned, but happy, they returned to Cameron about 2:30 that afternoon.

Coach Leo Jackson and Mrs. C. L. Canady were sponsors for the day.

Mrs. John Michna is receiving medical treatment in Newton Memorial Hospital.

JAIL BREAK—

Hardin-Baylor College: Although a wide-spread search was made, this was the last that has been seen of the two.

Sheriff Black said that the break was strictly an inside job and that the men had received no outside help. He said that they had torn a rung from a steel cot to use as a tool in loosening the mortar between the bricks. They did not go out one of the barred windows but went straight through the wall between two of them. They went through at a spot about eight feet from the one where Adams and Cowen had broken out on the night of July 2. The Sheriff had been away from the jail on calls most of the night leaving Ralph and Johnson time to work on their escape hole unwatched. Outside of the sheriff there is no other jailer or watchman hired by the county to help keep the necessary 24 hour vigil inside the jail.

Brought by bench warrant from the state prison system, Ralph and Johnson were being held for trial on May 20. They are charged with the burglary of Kopecky's Jewelry Store in Rockdale.

Mrs. Lois Pressley is a medical patient in Newton Memorial Hospital.

profession have stressed the great need of completing St. Luke's, on which $3,000,000 has already been expended, as a full 341-bed unit capable of offering specialized care to the sick. They emphasize that it is necessary to have St. Luke's in operation as soon as possible if the Texas Medical Center is to function as a complete unit.

The doctors of Houston have organized in a separate unit to work on the St. Luke's campaign, and they have set a goal of $400,000 to be raised by members of their own profession.

Mr. Prescott, whose appointment to head the St. Luke's Fund in Cameron was announced by J. Walter Kilpatrick of Houston, diocesan lay chairman for the drive, attended an all-day meeting in Houston May 8 at which the basic plan for the June 10-21 drive was drawn up. Attending with him was the Rev. James McKeown.

GIRL SCOUTS—

From 2:30-3:00 two high school students of Miss Dallis Young instructed the girls in tumbling.

The four day Day Camp will close Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The girls will return later that evening to the Scout Hut for a fly-up and award program.
